

1st Grade News

May 17, 2024

Camp Learned—A—Lot

When: May 20 - 22

Where: 1st Grade Classrooms

What to Bring:

Your child can bring in a flashlight, sleeping bag or blanket, pillow, and one stuffed animal.

Why do we do this?

To revisit and review several topics that we studied this year in first grade. It is a great way to end the year!

Summer Reading

Please have your child read widely and often, both with you and independently this summer. Here are some ideas for summer book selections for incoming second graders:

- ⇒ Fairy tales, tall tales, and folk tales of your choice
- ⇒ Books by Beatrix Potter
- ⇒ Any book by Syd Hoff
- ⇒ Amelia Bedelia books by Peggy Parish
- ⇒ Frog and Toad books by Arnold Lobel
- ⇒ Magic School Bus books

Special Days

- May 20- 22: Camp Learned-a-Lot
- May 21– Field Day (am only)
- May 23- Last Day of School (1/2 day)

Field Day

When: Tuesday
May 21, 2023,
8:40am—11:20am

Who: TCA students, parents

What to Bring: Hat, water bottle, and jacket. Please put sunscreen on before arriving to school!

Where: Central Field

What to Wear: Students should wear their class shirt and athletic pants or shorts. (Students may come in uniform as well.)

In our curriculum:

This next week during Camp Learned-a-Lot students will enjoy reviewing various things we have learned this year. Topics may include Phonograms, Spelling, Math Concepts and Facts, Egypt, English Settlers, 13 Colonies, Exploring the West, Human Body, Plant and Animal Survival, Simple Machines, Maps, Oceans, Sun, Moon & Stars. Can you believe all of the things we have learned about this year? You can also view what your student learned by looking through their copy book once it comes home! :)